P.C.:

. After hearing these petitions for some time, when I indicated my mind that I was not inclined to entertain the grounds putforth on behalf of the Petitioner, the Petitioner, who is appearing in person, submitted that, in that case, he may be permitted to withdraw the present petitions keeping all questions open regarding the immunity granted to the Petitioner in respect of the present offence as a ground for quashing of the criminal actions pending against him. Accordingly, petitions are dismissed as withdrawn with liberty on the above terms.
